

100 THINGS TO DO IN OXFORD MS WINTER/SPRING 2016

Oxford MS offers so much for residents and tourist to do. Here's a list, enjoy yourself.

Post on Instagram everything you do on this list.
#100THINGSOXFORDMS

Festivals/Events

Restaurant Week January 24-30

6th Annual Oxford Fiber Festival January 28-30

Paws for Art January 30

Empty Bowls fundraiser

Oxford Film Festival February 17-21

Oxford conference for the Book March 2-4

Double Decker Bus Tours, schedule and reservations at Visitor's Center

Double Decker Festival April 22-23

Mid-Town Farmer's Market opens in May

The Arts

Maker's Market Saturdays at the Square

Attend an event or take a tour of the Lyric Theatre

Participate in the monthly Oxford Art Crawl

Attend the Oxford Civic Chorus spring concert

Tour the Gertrude C. Ford Center for the Performing Arts then see a show

Join the Ox-Appella, the A-cappella singing group at the Powerhouse

Enjoy a performance at Theatre Oxford

Attend a Rox U concert this spring

Support YAC and attend the Miss-I-Sippin' fundraiser

Listen to a Thacker Mountain Radio live show or catch them on MPB

Meet an author at a Square Books book signing

Inspect the Yokna sculpture trail. There are three locations: Lamar Park, Powerhouse, Meek Hall

Catch a movie at one of the local Malco Theaters

Buy some art from the vending machine at Cups coffee shop

Attend a musical performance featuring the Ole Miss Music Department

Listen to Rebel Radio online

Enrichment/Classes/Misc.

Learn to play a musical instrument or shop for one at Oxford House of Music

Sign up for creative arts classes at the Powerhouse

Join the Tallahatchie Toastmasters

Join the Oxford Chamber to participate in member's events

Take a staycation at a local Bed and Breakfast

Pick up a good book to read at Square Books, Square Books Jr or Off-Square Books

Catch a live student-run news broadcast daily at 5pm online at newswatch99.com

Become a rock band member for a semester at Roxford University

Join Oxford Newcomers Club

Enjoy the Lafayette County Master Gardeners Spring Lecture Series and Plant Swap

Eat your way through Oxford

Go to church; there are plenty in town to choose from

Pamper yourself at a Day Spa

Dig for treasures at the many Oxford thrift stores, markets and antique stores.

Start your spring garden plans and borrow from the Seed Lending Library at the Lafayette-Oxford Public Library

Volunteer with Volunteer Oxford

Help the Public Library plant their summer garden

Start or add to your vinyl collection at End of All Music

Order a King Cake from Kroger for Mardi Gras

Shop the sales on the Square

Make friends with a Realtor® in case you decide you want to settle down in Oxford

Attend a lunch-time workshop at the Oxford Lafayette Library

Get custom fitted blue jeans at Blue Delta

See the latest exhibits at the Ole Miss Museum

Participate with Young Professionals of Oxford

Join an exercise class to get yourself summer-ready

Enroll with Communiversity

Experience a Pedicab Tour

100 THINGS TO DO IN OXFORD MS WINTER/SPRING 2016

Learn something new at the Brown Bag Luncheon Series, Wednesdays on the Ole Miss campus

Attend a workshop at Home Depot DIY or Kids Workshop

History

Tour the Walton-Young Historic House

Visit the Burns Belfry Museum & Multicultural Center

Walk through the Confederate Cemetery on the Ole Miss campus

Learn the history of Oxford

Take a picture at the historic phone booth on the Square

Take the Walk of Champions on The Grove

Wander through J.E. Neilson Company, the South's oldest department store

Make an appointment to research the political archives of Mississippi including the Presidential Debate 2008 at the University Library

Visit Cedar Oaks

Tour Rowan Oak, William Faulkner's house

Enjoy a historic walking tour of Oxford. Maps are at the Visitor's Center.

Find the Blues Trail marker

Visit the Blues Archives at the University of Mississippi

Visit Faulkner's grave at St. Peter's Cemetery

Tour the L.C.Q. Lamar House

Tour the historic building on the university campus

Walk among the "haunted" landmarks of Oxford. A list is available on Hottytoddy.com

Sit with the William Faulkner statue on the Square. He sits daily on a bench in front of City Hall.

Pay your respects to the UM girls who lost their lives along Hwy 6 just west of town. Memorial is across from Hunter's Hollow.

Pick up some brochures on Oxford at the Visitor's Center. You'll be surprised what you can learn about this town.

Sports/Outdoors

Attend a tournament game at FNC Park

Run a 5K in Oxford. RunningintheUSA.com has a list of upcoming Oxford races

Reserve a batting cage at FNC Park

Attend basketball game at the new Pavilion on the Ole Miss campus

Join the Walking Club at OU Methodist Church

Cheer for the Rebels at an Ole Miss Baseball game or any of the other university sport

Go bowling at the Premier Lanes at Oxford commons

Cheer on the Oxford Chargers Baseball team

Attend a Lafayette Commodores baseball game

Bike or hike the Thacker Mountain Rail Trail (or Whirlpool Trails)

Picnic on the Grove when the weather is fine

Go geocaching

Practice your swing at the T&H Batting Cages @ Pirate Adventures

Stand at the base of the water tower near the Confederate Cemetery and look up to see what is called the doorknob to the universe

Fish at any of the area lakes

Camp or spend the day at Clear Creek Landing: trails, fishing, boating and more

Organize a scavenger hunt throughout town

Play golf at one of Oxford's golf courses

Hang out at one of Oxford's parks: Avent, Pat Lamar and Stone Park

Play a game of tennis at the city courts

Keep your kids active on cold or rainy days at either Cloud 9 or Pirate Adventure bounce houses

Try your skills at the skating park

Play Frisbee-golf at the UM Frisbee-golf course

Learn to ride horseback at the Oxford Equine Center

Walk the Bailey's Woods Trail

100 Things To Do In Oxford MS is brought to you by: Eileen Saunders, Realtor with Tommy Morgan Realtors.

©2016 All Rights Reserved